

CALL FOR ENTRIES

“Short Days” is an international short film festival that has been active in several Italian cities since 2015. Keeping its nature of monthly screening, since 2018 “Short Days” becomes a festival that has the goal of screening in cinema venues a selection of the best independent short films, giving them the chance to be screened in multiple cities through our partnership with many Italian festivals. During the monthly screenings, jurors will award a winner that is going to qualify for the annual cash prize.

RULES

- The festival is open to directors and producers of all ages and nationalities;
- Short films can be of any genre, theme and language and must be under 30’;
- Non-English and non-Italian short films should be subtitled in English or Italian;
- In case of selection, an Italian-subtitled copy must be provided.
- Short films must be produced later than 01/01/2016;
- The author declares to own all rights (music and film) for its short. Our festival is not responsible for any claim about copyright.

AWARDS

- Best short of the month (Trophy)
- Best short of the year (Trophy and $1000 cash prize)

Jurors can assign honorable mentions if they desire.

FESTIVAL PARTNER

By submitting you agree to share your mail to receive discounts from the following international film festivals.

- Il Varco International Short Film Festival
- Pollino Film Fest
- Prisma Film Awards

SUBMISSION

Submission can be exclusively through FilmFreeway platform. Check FilmFreeway for other rules and regulations that there might be.